COURT WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In Re

JENNIFER TUCK, Chapter 7

Case No. 19-
10368-CLB

Debtor.

AFFIDAVIT OF STEPHANIE KASHINO IN OPPOSITION TO THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE'S LIMITED OBJECTION TO THE TRUSTEE'S
STATEMENT OF INTENT TO SELL SUBJECT TO LIENS

STATE OF NEW YORK) COUNTY OF ERIE) ss:

STEPHANIE KASHINO, as an employee of Bankruptcy Exchange Inc., doing business at 2952 Seneca Street, West Seneca, NY 14224, being duly sworn, deposes and says that:

1. I am a full time employee of Bankruptcy Exchange Inc., and receive a salary plus commission as compensation for my services.
2. My duties at Bankruptcy Exchange Inc. consist of traveling to Bankruptcy Court on a weekly basis to review the Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 filings in Western New York. I review court records to identify potential assets in each bankruptcy case. If an asset is found, I conduct extensive searches on the individuals that have an interest in the identified asset.
3. I identified the instant case and the subject property on March 2, 2019 and have continued to work on this case up to this time.

4. On April 30, 2019, I emailed Trustee Dan Brick with bids on both the remainder interest in 1735 Meadowbrook, Alden, NY 14004 and the debtor's interest in 3791 Creek Road, Clarence, NY and mailed out a copy to the bankruptcy court. This was after spending 40 hours researching this case. I have done records searches on the debtor, her mother, her brother, and her ex-husband. Trustee Brick's response was that I did not bid high enough. At this point he knew Bankruptcy Exchange Inc. was interested in the bankruptcy and that there were sellable assets.
5. On May 2nd I responded asking Trustee Brick if he had the deed so that I could review and bid higher. He said that he did not print it so at that point I paid to print the deed from the Erie County Clerk's website.
6. On May 6th I asked Trustee Brick if he would accept another higher offer on Meadowbrook with a break up fee. Trustee Brick responded that he would advise by 5/8/2019. He then explained that he wanted to see what happened at the matrimonial pretrial. He was working on Creek Road before moving on to Meadowbrook.
7. On May 7th Trustee Brick emailed me letting me know that the Court in the matrimonial hearing directed that Creek Road be listed with a broker.
8. On May 16th, I email Trustee Brick following up on the bid and offered $7,500.00 for the remainder interest in Meadowbrook.
9. On July 2, 2019, and October 12, 2019 I emailed Trustee Brick to follow up on the bid on the remainder interest.
10. On November 1 2019 Trustee Brick emailed me back stating that if I was still interested in the remainder interest he would notice a bid at $10,000.00. I called Trustee Brick and asked if Bankruptcy Exchange Inc. bid $15,000.00 will he notice the bid with 15% bid protection. Trustee Brick was agreeable to this. He didn't think any one else would bid. I sent him the bid November 1, 2019.
11. Then on November 4, 2019, Bankruptcy Exchange Inc. filed a letter with the court indicating that it would increase its bid on the subject property to $15,000.00 together with bid protection at the rate of 15%.
12. On November 7th Trustee Brick noticed the bid of 15,000.00 with 15% bid protection.

13. In November, U.S. Trustee Jill Zuber called me and asked me what I meant by bid protection. When I explained, she informed me that bid protection may be a problem and that the U.S. Trustee's office does not like bid protection. The call ended with us agreeing that hopefully no one bids against us and it isn't an issue for anyone.

14. On December 2, 2019 Attorney James Tresmond, the attorney for William Brown, filed an objection and a higher bid on behalf of his client. At this point I started reaching out to Trustee Brick to confirm we will be getting bid protection in the event we are outbid.

15. On January 2nd Trustee Brick responded to my emails confirming the bid protection. He responded that there was no formal objection from the U.S. Trustee's office so he presumed that we just wait to see what happens.

16. On January 3rd I checked Pacer to see if there were any new objections filed. There were none. On January 4th which was a Saturday I received a notice that the U.S. Trustee's office objected to my bid protection the day before. It was Saturday and the Hearing was that Monday.

17. On January 6th I went to bankruptcy court for the hearing and asked for more time to get an attorney. I was granted more time.

18. My attorney and I wrote an affidavit and submitted it to the court on January 24, 2020. The hearing was continued January 27, 2020. I was informed that the other bidder did not have the means to bid and that the debtor's mother was not in good condition, thus making the bid protection moot. Court was adjourned again to see what happened.

19. On February 25, 2020 I found out that the other bidder does plan on bidding and that I must submit an explanation for the bid protection.

20. The purpose of requesting the bid protection was, and is, to assure that Bankruptcy Exchange Inc.'s efforts in doing the research detailed in this affidavit and the expenses incurred as a result would be protected in the event that a competing bid would be successful as a result of my work and effort on this case. Bankruptcy Exchange Inc. has time and money into this case.

21. In addition to the expenses and time spent on this case. It is relevant to add that Bankruptcy Exchange, Inc and its professionals know what to look for in these cases because of their extensive training and that alone has Value.

21. As such, the request for 15% bid protection is fair and reasonable because the efforts of Bankruptcy Exchange Inc. drove this case from having no bidders to potentially multiple bidders, all of which will result in the highest possible recovery for the Debtor's interest in the subject property.

22. Based upon the foregoing, I respectfully submit that the November 4, 2019 bid for $15,000 together with 15% bid protection be permitted to go forward.

DATED:
February 26,
2020

Stephanie Kashino

Sworn to before me
